Fishing

Dearborn County is home to some of the best fishing in Indiana. With its many rivers, lakes, and ponds, there's a spot for every type of angler.

Some of the most popular fishing spots in Dearborn County include:

- Whitewater River
- East Fork Whitewater River
- Laughery Creek
- Caesar Creek Lake
- Brookville Lake

These bodies of water are stocked with a variety of fish, including bass, bluegill, crappie, catfish, and walleye. So whether you're looking for a challenge or just a relaxing day on the water, you're sure to find it in Dearborn County.

Fishing Tips

Here are a few tips to help you make the most of your fishing trip in Dearborn County:

- Get a fishing license. A valid Indiana fishing license is required for anyone 16 years of age or older who fishes in the state.
- Check the fishing regulations. The Indiana Department of Natural Resources (DNR) sets fishing regulations for the state, including bag limits and size limits. Be sure to check the regulations before you go fishing.

- Use the right bait. The type of bait you use will depend on the type of fish you're targeting. Live bait, such as worms or minnows, is often a good choice. Artificial lures can also be effective, especially for bass and walleye.
- Be patient. Fishing can be a slow process, especially if you're not having any luck. Don't get discouraged, just keep casting and you'll eventually catch something.

Floating

Floating is a great way to relax and enjoy the scenery of Dearborn County. There are several rivers in the county that are suitable for floating, including:

- Whitewater River
- East Fork Whitewater River
- Laughery Creek

You can float these rivers in a canoe, kayak, or tube. There are several outfitters in Dearborn County that can rent you a boat or tube and provide you with a shuttle service.

Floating Tips

Here are a few tips to help you make the most of your floating trip in Dearborn County:

- Wear a life jacket. A life jacket is required by law for anyone under the age of 13 who is floating in Indiana. It's also a good idea for adults to wear a life jacket, especially if you're not a strong swimmer.

- Be aware of your surroundings. Be aware of the weather conditions, the water level, and the other boats and objects in the river.
- Stay hydrated. It's important to stay hydrated when you're floating, especially in hot weather. Bring plenty of water with you, or stop at a rest area along the river to refill your water bottle.
- Have fun! Floating is a great way to relax and enjoy the scenery. So sit back, relax, and enjoy the ride.

Camping

If you're looking to camp in Dearborn County, there are several campgrounds to choose from. Some of the most popular campgrounds include:

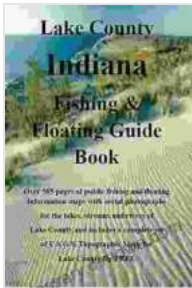

- Whitewater Memorial State Park
- Hueston Woods State Park
- Caesar Creek State Park

These campgrounds offer a variety of campsites, from primitive campsites to RV hookups. So whether you're looking for a rustic camping experience or a more comfortable stay, you're sure to find a campground that meets your needs.

Other Activities

In addition to fishing, floating, and camping, there are several other activities you can enjoy in Dearborn County. Some of the most popular activities include:

- Hiking
- Biking
- Horseback riding
- Bird watching
