In a world where gods and humans coexist, Misato Kurihara is an ordinary high school student with exceptional magical abilities. After being reincarnated into another world as Mile, she mistakenly asks the gods to make her abilities average. Little did she know, her request would be granted quite literally.

Now, as Mile embarks on a new life as an apprentice pharmacist, she must navigate a world where her extraordinary powers are concealed beneath an ordinary facade. With the help of her friends and newfound love, Mile discovers that true strength lies not only in abilities but also in the bonds she forms along the way.

What to Expect from Volume 10:
