About the Book

The Escape of Light is a powerful and moving memoir that tells the story of how Fred Venturini found hope and redemption after serving 25 years in prison for a crime he didn't commit. Venturini was wrongfully convicted of murder in 1983 and spent the next quarter century fighting to prove his innocence. During his time in prison, he endured unimaginable hardships, but he never gave up hope.

Venturini's story is one of perseverance, resilience, and the power of forgiveness. Despite the injustice he suffered, he never lost his faith in humanity. He used his time in prison to help others and to become a better person. When he was finally exonerated in 2009, he emerged from prison as a beacon of hope and inspiration.
