Synopsis

The Hardy Boys are back in another thrilling adventure! This time, they're investigating a series of mysterious accidents at a local amusement park. Could it be sabotage? Or is something more sinister going on?

Frank and Joe Hardy are excited to spend their summer vacation at Bayport Amusement Park. But their fun is cut short when they witness a series of strange accidents. First, the roller coaster brakes fail, and the train nearly crashes. Then, the Ferris wheel stops suddenly, leaving riders stranded high in the air. And finally, the carousel goes haywire, throwing riders off.

The Hardys suspect that the accidents are not accidental. They start to investigate, and they soon uncover a plot to sabotage the amusement park.

The saboteur is determined to shut down the park, and they will stop at nothing to achieve their goal.

Frank and Joe must race against time to stop the saboteur and save the amusement park. But can they do it before it's too late?
