Las Vegas is home to several world-class museums, many of which offer free admission. Here are a few of our favorites:

- The Bellagio Gallery of Fine Art features a rotating collection of paintings, sculptures, and other works of art.
- The Neon Museum is home to a collection of over 200 historic neon signs.
- The Mob Museum tells the story of organized crime in Las Vegas.
- The National Atomic Testing Museum explores the history of nuclear testing in Nevada.
- The Springs Preserve is a 180-acre cultural and botanical attraction that includes the Origen Museum, which tells the story of Las Vegas's history.

Las Vegas is known for its spectacular shows, but you don't have to spend a lot of money to see them. Here are a few free shows that you can enjoy:

- The Bellagio Fountains are a choreographed water show that takes place every 15 minutes in front of the Bellagio Hotel.
- The Fremont Street Experience is a pedestrian mall with a 90-foot-tall LED screen that shows free concerts, light shows, and other events.
- The Mirage Volcano is a nightly eruption that takes place in front of the Mirage Hotel.
- The Circus Circus Acts are a variety of free circus acts that take place throughout the day at Circus Circus Hotel & Casino.
- The Venetian Gondola Rides are a romantic way to experience the canals of the Venetian Hotel.

In addition to museums and shows, there are also plenty of other free activities to enjoy in Las Vegas. Here are a few ideas:

- Hike in the Red Rock Canyon National Conservation Area, which is just a short drive from Las Vegas.
- Visit the Hoover Dam, which is a marvel of engineering.
- Take a walk through the Bellagio Conservatory & Botanical Garden, which is a stunning display of flowers and plants.
- Visit the Ethel M Chocolate Factory, which offers free tours and samples.
- Attend a free concert at the outdoor amphitheater at the Fremont Street Experience.

As you can see, there are plenty of free things to do in Las Vegas. So whether you're on a budget or just looking for a way to save money, you're sure to find something to enjoy.

So what are you waiting for? Start planning your trip to Las Vegas today!
